

The 2019 Reginald F. Lewis Museum High School Juried Art Show January 12, 2019 to February 28, 2019

Dear High School Art Chairpersons and Educators:

We are pleased to invite students to participate in the 11th Annual Reginald F. Lewis Museum High School Juried Art Show, sponsored by the Reginald F. Lewis Museum (RFLM), the Maryland State Education Association (MSEA) and the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE). The museum brings Maryland African American history and culture to life through its permanent galleries and education programs while sharing the broader African American experience through special exhibitions and a variety of events. Works selected will be showcased in the museum's galleries. The winners of the juried exhibit will be featured in the RFLM's online newsletter as well as the MSEA's brochure for the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Awards Celebration.

The exhibition Romare Bearden: Visionary Artist was organized by the Romare Bearden Foundation, New York, NY and the Reginald F. Lewis Museum, Baltimore, MD. Exhibition Tour Management by Landau Traveling Exhibitions, Los Angeles, CA.

This year's artistic theme is inspired by the artworks of African American collage artist Romare Bearden. Students are encouraged to create artwork reflecting themes on social activism, history, music or womanhood.

Romare Bearden: Visionary Artist features over 70 works in a variety of media that showcase Bearden as one of the most important visual artists of the 20th century. Throughout his prolific career, Bearden (1911-1988) countered racial stereotypes with images drawn from history, literature, the Bible, the African American community, and his imagination.

Art submissions can include collage, prints, paintings, drawings, mixed-media assemblages and photography.

The deadline for students to register is Friday, October 12, 2018. Students and/or teachers should electronically submit a jpg image of the student's art work by Friday, November 9, 2018 for judging. We request selected works to be delivered to the museum by Monday, December 10, 2018. Attached you will find information on submission guidelines, registration forms and artwork labels. Cash prizes will be awarded to students who receive top honors for their works. Prizes for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place are as follows:

1st Place $400.00 2nd Place $200.00 3rd Place $ 100.00

Selected works will be exhibited at the Reginald F. Lewis Museum in Baltimore, Maryland from January 12, 2019 to February 28, 2019. A reception to commemorate the winners will take place on Monday, January 21, 2019 at the Reginald F. Lewis Museum during the Annual MLK Day Celebration which occurs Noon to 4 pm. The time for the reception will be announced at a later date.

Thank you in advance for your participation in this annual event showcasing the talent of Maryland's young artists. The Reginald F. Lewis Museum, the Maryland State Education Association and the Maryland State Department of Education are proud partners in developing programs that nurture youth in exploring the cultural arts. If you have any questions that the guidelines or forms do not answer, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone (443-263-1829) or by email at Terry.Taylor@lewismuseum.org.

Sincerely,
Terry Taylor
Educational Programs Manager

GENERAL INFORMATION:

1. The Reginald F. Lewis Museum High School Juried Art Show is open to all high school students (Grades 10-12) attending public school and public charter schools in the state of Maryland.
2. Student's works will be judged electronically by an art committee to make selections. Electronic submissions of student's works must be received by Friday, November 9, 2018. Once works are selected by the committee, teachers or students will be asked to drop their actual works to the museum by Monday, December 10, 2018. Once actual works have been received, works will be judged for the top four finalists.
3. Schools can submit a total of 25 pieces of fine art work per school. All art work must be two dimensional or "low relief." Student art submissions can include collages, drawings, paintings, prints, photographs, lithographs and mixed-media assemblages. Maximum size is 36" x 40". Please send no more than one piece from an individual student.
4. Art work can be hand delivered or shipped to the Reginald F. Lewis Museum. Artists are responsible for shipping their work to the museum in sturdy, reusable boxes. For return shipping, please include a prepaid Federal Express or UPS return shipping label. Please ship art work to the Reginald F. Lewis Museum, Attention: Education Department- HS Juried Art Exhibition, 830 East Pratt Street, Baltimore, MD 21202.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

1. Registration forms can be faxed to 410-333-1138 to the attention of Terry Taylor or forward to the email: Terry.Taylor@lewismuseum.org.
2. Students or teachers must email the museum a jpg image of the student's works by Friday, November 9, 2018 to Terry.Taylor@lewismuseum.org. The maximum size for each jpg image is 4 MG or 300 DPI. The jpg image should be titled with the student's first initial and last name. To be reviewed, please include the artist statement and the art work label for identification.
3. The museum will notify teachers on whose art works will be invited to the high school juried art show. For final submission, please ensure works on paper are mounted to a sturdy ¼" board (i.e. gatorboard or foamcore). Canvas pieces may be stretched or mounted, but must have clean edges. Charcoal, pastel, or pencil must be sprayed with fixative. The Reginald F. Lewis Museum will attach a hanging mechanism to the back of each piece.
4. Two completed labels must be included with each art submission. Attach one of the labels to each piece of artwork. Submit the remaining label separately for documentation. Although we are as careful as possible we cannot be responsible for lost or damaged work.
5. Any copyrighted or appropriated image must be altered from its original or previous format in composition and intent. Although we discourage use of copyrighted images, we understand that in collage or digital material they may be necessary and appropriate. The committee reserves the right to jury out work that includes imagery inappropriate for a school audience.
